

Meet the Creators Behind Your AAPI Heritage Month Event

Say hello to the inspiring creators & educators of your AAPI events!

confetti

Celebrate AAPI Heritage Month with Confetti!

Inspire your team with educational, interactive experiences — all created by our incredible AAPI community.

Get Started

confetti

Krong
Thai Cooking Class

Krong is a Thai native, who first learned Thai cooking as a child in the southern province of Songkhla.

She spent many years helping her mother and grandmother make everyday meals. For the last 10 years, she's been teaching cooking classes and spreading her love of flavor around the world.

Shira
Bollywood Workout, Tai Chi and Yoga

Over the past 20 years, Shira has worked as a certified group fitness instructor.

She has offered numerous classes for schools and corporate clients around the world. She works with an incredible network of AAPI hosts to bring people authentic, engaging fitness classes.

Rong
Chinese Tea Brewing Class

A third-generation tea expert born in Fujian, China, Rong's ongoing passion for tea informs an integral part of her identity.

She travels the world sharing her passion for tea through education and gleanng insight on how Chinese culture is perceived and interpreted around the world.

Janice
Boba Tea Making Class

Janice was born in Taiwan, and is one of three sisters that loved to cook with her mom.

She found a passion for food and opened several restaurants and bakeries in 1999 with her family here in America. One of her biggest dreams is to share the culture and food of Taiwan with all those that don't know how great Taiwan really is.

Jasper
AAPI Cultural Impact Class

Jasper has taught English in Tokyo, where he lived and worked with his family.

He is honored to join Confetti's creators and educators with this thrilling opportunity to showcase his own Asian American identity and Japanese heritage. Jasper currently lives in New York City.

Jade
AAPI Cultural Impact Class

Jade is Chinese American and grew up in a household that celebrated Chinese traditions.

She went to college to be an elementary education teacher and loves to teach others about her family traditions. She is an active member of the CACAA (Chinese American Citizen Alliance in Albuquerque), which works to preserve Chinese American culture through educating the youth and local community.

Libby
AAPI History & Culture Mini Games

Libby is a performing artist and Bay Area native, born in San Francisco, CA.

She is very proud of her Japanese heritage and has been fortunate enough to wield her creative abilities to celebrate her culture, as well as many other beautiful AAPI cultures, through these mini games.

Padma
Bollywood Seen It?

Padma is a Queer clinical social worker, curriculum designer, and multidisciplinary performer/artist.

She specializes in fire belly dance, burlesque, vogue, and of course, Bollywood dancing! Padma graduated in two styles of classical Indian dance (Bharata Natyam and Kuchipudi), and teaches at her mother's Indian classical dancing school and privately from her home.

Confetti's Own!
Chelsey
AAPI History & Culture Trivia, Jeopardy, and Exploring AAPI Art

Chelsey is a multi-disciplined New York-based actor and writer, but originally hails from the sunny island of Singapore.

Her half-Chinese heritage has informed many of her artistic choices, often incorporating Mandarin in the music she performs as well as South East Asian folklore in her screenwriting. She finds grounding in her roots — it very much influences her art as well as her desire to build long-lasting community and is thrilled to share this energy through these events with you.